

W.i.t.c.h.

Grown-up Character-Bio

by Yangi

Willhelmina Vandom

Right after school Matt and Will broke up. They had developed into different directions and decided to part. Since Matt worked for Kandrakar from time to time, they still saw each other and after two years they could cross paths without feeling awkward and became friends again. Matt soon after left Heatherfield for college and eventually got to know an artist.

Will studied law and helped out at the Olsen's pet shop, until the old man died peacefully. In his memory she stopped her studies and opened a new pet day care. After years of business, she gained employees and only has to stop by every now and then. However she still enjoys working there. In her neighborhood she's famous for her good hand with electronics. Whenever there's a problem, that can't be fixed, Will gets a call.

Her mother and Collins live abroad in the Toscana now and only visit every now and then majorly for the sake of William. Will's little brother William lives together with her in the 3 room flat at the moment. He had married young at the age of 19 and his wife died soon after she gave birth to the twins Emilia and Michael, so in order to handle the sudden situation, Will took them in. Michael is already very fast learning and curious about the world. Emilia, on the contrary is very careful and easily scared. She sleeps a lot, cries a lot. But if she smiles it's like the sparkle of a star.

Hayden, a teenager from a flat above, has got too much free time and somehow clings to Will, since his mother isn't at home much. He helps Will out at the shop and babysits the twins if the adults are at work.

Will still clings to her old friends from WITCH, though, since peace times, they had less to do as guardians and with Taranee's nomination as new oracle, the contact crackled a little. She meets up a lot with Hay Lin and her family and at least once a year the friends meet without Tara in Heatherfield and twice a year they meet in Kandrakar to comfort her friend.

W.i.t.c.h.

Grown-up Character-Bio

by Yangi

Irma Lair

Irma moved out into a big city after school. Via teleportation she teamed up with WITCH for their guardian jobs but other than that she had hardly any time for meeting because of her study. She learned at a famous media school and became a movie director years later. Now she travels the world for her newest picture and the girls get tickets for her picture premiers. She also lectures about her work at universities.

Irma's parents are retirees. They spend most of their time on Hawaii. Christopher has a rebellious phase and went touring with a semi-professional band. He visits his sister whenever he has a new project he needs money or contacts for.

The penthouse the former guardian owns in Denver is bright and sun-flooded. She has a little, fuzzy white cat. Over the years she changed boyfriends several times.

Her current one is Brandon, a tanned, energetic athlete with strong arms and a big heart. All he desires is to fulfill Irma's' every wish.

Also living with her, is Lira - age 10-, her youngest cousin. She's magical and had to stay somewhere while her parents went oversees for business reasons. She chose Irma and the guardian didn't struggle. All of them get along well, though it get's hectic from time to time, especially when Liras powers turn nuts and Brandon comes strolling along.

W.i.t.c.h.

Grown-up Character-Bio

by Yangi

Taraneh Cook

After school Taraneh worked at a photographer and pictured favorably married ones and babies. Two years passed and she got to know a sweet man with a baby girl daughter. They became very fond of each other but before she could join their family, an accident on a magical mission, bound her forever to the fortress of Kandrakar.

There she got elected oracle soon after. She never dared to tell her one love the truth, only watched from afar, how the little girl grew older.

Her parents died of age. Peter took care of their belongings and visits their grave yearly. He knows of his sister's whereabouts. After the death of their parents, Taraneh couldn't watch her brother grief and contacted him. She never told anything more, about the others, about Cornelia. Sometimes, they meet in his dreams.

Because of her oracle duties, Taraneh can't call in much to her old friends and sometimes she gets lonely on that big old fortress filled with old and wise people. But she likes her room and enjoys teasing her advisors and Yan Lin makes her stay much easier.

W.i.t.c.h.

Grown-up Character-Bio

by Yangi

Cornelia Hale

Right after school Cornelia made career as ice skating talent, winning competitions all over the continent. One day she fell and hurt her knee fatally. It healed but she decided to retire anyways. Then, bit by bit, new ice skaters asked her for advice. Cornelia opened a training camp for ice skaters of every level. From starters to professional contest winners to get in touch with others, grow talents and lessen the hard competition thinking. She lives in a bigger city not far from Heatherfield.

After years Peter finally asked her and they are engaged at the moment, planning their wedding for next year in summer.

Cornelia's father died in a car accident. Her mother is all right but Lilian stays with her, taking care of her fragile health. Cornelia visits both of them frequently and helps out with financial issues. Lilian got calmer over the years, responsible and well mannered. Though she still likes to spy on her sister. She want to become a painter and saves for an expensive art school.

W.i.t.c.h.

Grown-up Character-Bio

by Yangi

Hay Lin Soonang:

Hay Lin went on a long trip through Asia right after school she send tons of pictures of her grinning in front of whatever to her friends at home. In Thailand she then met Yon, a young half Korean, who fell for her within seconds. They continued her travel together and he told her of his cooking dreams. In the end they turned out married and returned to Heatherfield. There he became a martial arts teacher, learning how to cook from his father in law. She continued teaching at the magical school, the WITCH founded during their time as guardians.

Few years later she gave birth to a girl and some more years later, to a boy.

Her youngest, Han is around 6 years old and very clever. He plays with a boy named Jaden from his mother's school who has a talent for fortune telling. He drives Hay Lin crazy with the stuff Jaden tells him.

Mei-mei or just Mei is about 12 years old and a talented rhythmic sports gymnast. Both are non-magical up until now and in spite of the current situation on earth, her mother is very content with it.

Hay Lin's parents are still living in Heatherfield in their block house on the hill, and retail the Silver Dragon with help of some newbies. They take care of their grandchildren sometimes, so that the young parents can have some free time.

The whole family, except her parents, knows about Hay Lin's magical past and present. They even visit Taranee in Kandrakar every once in a while even though they try to keep it secret, since the wise men might not like it too much having private visitors.

W.i.t.c.h.

Grown-up Character-Bio

by Yangi